Five Years of Strategic Partnership: Uzbekistan Airways × Amadeus

2026 18 November

Five years ago, Uzbekistan Airways and Amadeus embarked on a strategic partnership built around the Amadeus Altéa platform.

Today, we mark five years of collaboration, reflecting on the progress achieved and the role of technology in supporting our airline's development.

As we look ahead, our focus is on the next stage of digital transformation – advancing Airline Retailing, embracing innovative technologies and creating more seamless, personalized travel experiences for our passengers.

We highly value our partnership with Amadeus and look forward to shaping the next chapter of our digital journey together.

Five years of partnership. Building the future of aviation together.
