Purchasing airline tickets online on www.uzairways.com

2022 1 November

Year after year, Uzbekistan Airways improves the quality of service and creates comfort for passengers. Now passengers can purchase airline tickets without spending time at the airline ticket offices, without leaving home or office. It does not take much time for passengers to buy airline tickets through the official website of Uzbekistan Airways www.uzairways.com or UzAirways mobile app available on the App Store and Google Play platforms. There are several advantages of using an online service, one of which is that all process is carried out by the passenger.

Instructions for passengers to purchase airline tickets online:

1. Visit the official website www.uzairways.com or download the UzAirways mobile application;

2. Choose the route;

3. Enter the date of the flight, the number of passengers (adults, children, infants) and the type of payment;

4. Select the time of departure (in some directions we offer several options);

5. Choose the type of class (business, economy);

6. Enter passport information;

7. Place contact information;

8. Make a payment.

After doing these steps, information about successful completion of the airline ticket purchase process and the airline ticket itself will be sent to the passenger’s phone number and e-mail. The process of buying airline tickets online does not require a lot of time from passengers, and especially it is convenient.

For information, on May 5 of this year, it was launched a new, convenient and simplified version of the www.uzairways.com website. Since the launch of the new website, 816,088 tickets have been purchased until October 1.

Airline tickets can be purchased from the airline’s official website, UzAirways mobile application, Uzbekistan Airways Sales branch or airline agents.
