Uzbekistan Airways Participating In IMTM-2023 Tourism Fair

2023 15 February

JSC Uzbekistan Airways takes part in the National Stand “Uzbekistan” at the International Mediterranean Tourism Fair in Israel IMTM-2023, which takes place in Tel Aviv from February 14 to 15 this year.

The Mediterranean International Tourism Fair IMTM-2023 presents this year such areas as: ecotourism, health and cultural tourism, beach or city holidays, package offers, individual tours. The exhibition is supported by the Ministry of Tourism, the Association of Hotels, the Association of Travel Agencies and the Association of Tour Operators of Israel.

During the two-day exhibition, Uzbekistan Airways will present information on the wide range of services of the airline, its aircraft fleet, regular passenger and cargo flights, new destinations and flights to the countries of the Middle East, Europe, the CIS and Central Asia.

This international Mediterranean tourism fair is an excellent opportunity to present the great tourism potential of Uzbekistan and the services of the airline. IMTM-2023 will provide an opportunity to establish new contacts, strengthen cooperation with partners in the Mediterranean market and attract potential tourists from Israel to Uzbekistan.

For information, Uzbekistan Airways operates regular passenger flights from Tashkent to Tel Aviv on Mondays, Tuesdays and Thursdays.
