Uzbekistan Airways Approves "Spring-Summer 2023" Flight Schedule

2023 20 February

From March 26, 2023, Uzbekistan Airways is switching to a spring-summer flight schedule, which will be valid until October 28 of this year. During the summer navigation, the airline will increase flight numbers to popular touristic destinations, as well as expand its route network. In the summer season, it is planned to operate regular flights on more than 70 routes. Flights from Tashkent to Urgench and Nukus will be operated 2 times and to Bukhara 1 time daily. Weekly flights will also be operated from the capital of Uzbekistan to Karshi 2 times, to Termez and Samarkand - 6 times each, to the Ferghana Valley: to Namangan - 2, Ferghana - 3 and Andijan also twice.

Traditionally, international flights will be carried out from Tashkent to Istanbul, Dubai, Riga, Moscow, Almaty, Astana, Dushanbe, Bishkek, Baku, Minsk, Delhi, London, Seoul, Kuala Lumpur and other cities.

In the upcoming spring-summer season, the airline shall conduct flights on 70 directions, including 40 destinations in Russia and 30 in the CIS countries and far abroad. In the new season, the airline increases the number of flights to international destinations in New York, Frankfurt, Riga, Tel Aviv, Baku, Tbilisi. Compared to the winter schedule, flights to Istanbul are also about to be multiplied.

From the spring-summer season, the airline starts operating flights to Milan, Paris and such Russian cities like Orenburg, Nizhnevartovsk, Omsk, Nizhny Novgorod.

Purchase airline tickets through the airline’s official website www.uzairways.com, as well as in the mobile application UzAirways, in the branch of Uzbekistan Airways Sales or from the agents of the airline.