

Uzbekistan Airways congratulates on International Women's Day

2023 8 March

There is a woman, the universe is bright and beautiful. Taking care of them is the most correct step for the future.

Women have their position everywhere: business, companies, politics, art and many other places. At the same time, our flight attendant sisters, flight dispatchers, operators, and accountants who contribute to the development of the airline are also among them.

At the moment, 2,058 skilled and charming women who are masters of their profession work in Uzbekistan Airways JSC, and each of them is unique. Women also have their own contribution in the process from the take-off of the aircraft to the landing.

Dear women, Uzbekistan Airways congratulates you on International Women's Day and wishes you to travel more.

Have a blessed holiday!
