

Uzbekistan Airways participates in the International Tourism Exhibition AITF-2023

2023 5 April

Uzbekistan Airways takes part in the International Tourism Exhibition AITF-2023 as part of the National Stand "Uzbekistan", which takes place from 4 to 6 April 2023 in Baku, Azerbaijan.

The international tourism exhibition AITF this year brought together the leading players in the tourism industry after a 3-year break. Representatives of the tourism industry, national and regional tourism organizations, and government agencies from different countries will meet at this exhibition, which is one of the main platforms that allow interested parties to establish new relationships.

During the three-day work of the exhibition, visitors and guests will be provided with full information about a wide range of services of Uzbekistan Airways JSC, including the aircraft fleet, regular passenger and cargo flights, new directions to the countries of the Middle East, CIS, Southeast Asia and Central Asia.

Participation in this international tourism exhibition will serve as an excellent opportunity to present the great tourism potential of Uzbekistan and the services of Uzbekistan Airways JSC among the citizens of Azerbaijan and other countries, popularize the Uzbek tourist destination, establish new contacts, strengthen cooperation with partners and attract potential tourists from Azerbaijan to our country.

For information, Uzbekistan Airways JSC operates regular passenger flights from Tashkent to Baku four times a week.
