Nobody is left without attention

2023 22 June

Uzbekistan Airways supports a healthy lifestyle and holds many cultural, educational, sports and recreational events for employees and their children. From June 16 to 18, the airline organized a two-day trip to the “Ugam oromgohi” recreation complex.

The event was attended by airline employees with children with disabilities and employees with more than two children who have lost their breadwinners. The initiator of leisure activities for socially vulnerable families was the division of social policy of the Human Resources Department. The Trade Union Committee of Uzbekistan Airways JSC supported the initiative and fully funded the trip. Sports and recreational activities and a seminar on proper nutrition were held, aimed at strengthening the physical health of children and developing physical qualities through training activities and sports programs.

On the territory of the health complex “Ugam oromgohi” of Bostanlyk district, within the framework of the program, children took part in various sports games and activities. The main task of the organizing committee was to support the moral, spiritual and physical "balance" among the participants in this project. All exercises were held outdoors and, in the pool, which helped the children of the workers to reduce the stress, overcome stiffness and relax. To improve their physical and psychological condition, the children took part in the program, in which they showed acting skills and demonstrated their talents. At the end of the event, all participants of the social project received memorable gifts from Uzbekistan Airways.

The participants expressed their sincere gratitude to the trade union committee and Uzbekistan Airways for organizing this trip:

- Thank you for a wonderful vacation, for sports and recreational activities that both children and parents really liked, for wonderful and unexpected gifts and an amazing mood, for your patience and work in organizing the trip. Our family visited this mountain resort for the first time. We have lots of emotions and positivity! Thanks for all! - flight attendant Borisenko Yulia Borisovna expressed special gratitude to the trade union committee and the organizers of the program.

The airline union will continue to organize such events and support initiatives that will contribute to the comfort, support and protection of employees and their loved ones.

