Uzbekistan Airways and Asialuxe Travel developing cooperation in tourism field

2023 14 November

The national airline Uzbekistan Airways and the leading tour operator Asialuxe Travel made a presentation in Dubai in order to strengthen partnership and develop tourism in Uzbekistan.

The gala event allowed both companies to establish business connections and partnerships with travel agencies, tour operators, representatives of the travel industry and the hospitality industry. Representatives of Uzbekistan Airways and Asialuxe Travel answered questions from presentation participants and held a business meeting where they discussed the prospects for the development of tourism in Uzbekistan.

As part of the presentation, Uzbekistan Airways and Asialuxe Travel demonstrated a wide range of tourist routes, opportunities for traveling around Uzbekistan, strengthened business ties, talked about new travel packages and advantageous offers, and reviewed the infrastructure and services provided for tourists in the republic. Guests of the event also became more familiar with many years of experience and the history of successful trips to Uzbekistan, ready-made tour packages to the most ancient and unique cities of the country.

This event is proof that Uzbekistan Airways is investing significant efforts in the development of tourism in Uzbekistan.
