The Airline Conducted an Off-site Team Building Event for Youth

2024 28 May

On May 25-26, the trade union and Department of Social Policy and Spirituality of Uzbekistan Airways organized a team building activity for the youth of the airline and its affiliated companies, with a trip to the leisure zone in the Kumushkana Mountains.

Employees of Uzbekistan Airways, coming together in friendly teams, participated in sports competitions, attended a seminar, and performed role-plays. The team building event helped employees improve skills crucial for working in a large team: strategic thinking, teamwork, and enhanced communication.

Such activities are a key element in the airline’s strategy for supporting and developing youth. They enhance the efficiency of team collaboration and improve relationships among employees.
