Uzbekistan Airways in the Kimyo International University in Tashkent

2025 6 March

Uzbekistan Airways employees attended a painting exhibition by students of Kimyo International University in Tashkent, where their traditional aviation attire perfectly complemented the event’s vibrant atmosphere.

The exhibition provided an excellent platform for showcasing the talent and creative potential of young students, whose works impressed with their depth of concept, unique execution, and rich national heritage.

