Asror Kambarov awarded the “Kelajak Bunyodkori” medal

2025 30 June

We are proud to announce that, in accordance with the Decree of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated June 28, 2025, “On awarding a group of active and enterprising representatives of the country's younger generation in connection with Youth Day,” Asror Kambarov, first officer of the 3rd Flight Squadron of the Airbus A320 Flight Service Department of Uzbekistan Airways JSC, has been awarded the high state award, the “Kelajak Bunyodkori” medal.

This honorary award is given to young people who have shown initiative, high professionalism, a desire for development, and a significant contribution to the prosperity of the country. Through his conscientious work, determination, and responsible attitude to his profession, Asror Kambarov has rightfully become a worthy example of a young specialist actively participating in the development of civil aviation in Uzbekistan.
Asror graduated from the Tashkent Railway Technical School in 2015 with a degree in electrical engineering, and in 2021 from the Riga Aeronautical Institute with a degree in piloting. Since 2022, he has been successfully performing the duties of first officer on an Airbus A320 aircraft.

In the Republic of Uzbekistan, priority attention is given to supporting young people and unlocking their intellectual and professional potential. This strategic direction is also actively implemented within the framework of Uzbekistan Airways JSC, where young specialists are provided with all the conditions for training, career growth, and comprehensive development.

On behalf of the airline's staff, we sincerely congratulate Asror Kambarov on his well-deserved award! We wish him good health, new achievements, and further success in serving the domestic aviation industry!
