Table tennis: Uzbekistan Airways in the Corporate Champions League

2025 5 August

Uzbekistan Airways employees continue to represent the airline with dignity in the Corporate Champions League, a major sports tournament among leading companies in Uzbekistan.

Particular attention is focused on the table tennis competition, where Jahongir Jurabaev is confidently fighting for gold and Shohrukh Muminov for silver. This Saturday will see the final match, which could be a decisive step towards the championship.

We wish Jahongir and Shohrukh a resounding victory and thank all the members of the Uzbekistan Airways team for participating in the tournament.
