A Celebration of Spring and Tradition: Pre-Holiday Fair at Uzbekistan Airways Head Office

2026 19 March

On the eve of the brightest and most anticipated spring holidays – Navruz and the sacred Ramazan Hayit – a truly warm and festive atmosphere has taken hold at our airline's head office.

Today, a special festive food fair was organized for Uzbekistan Airways employees. This wonderful corporate initiative allows our large team to prepare for the upcoming long weekend in a comfortable and convenient setting. Colleagues were able to purchase fresh products and traditional treats for their festive dastarkhan, saving valuable time during the pre-holiday rush.

A special flair and unique mood were brought to the day by the aviators themselves. Embracing the spirit of spring renewal and deep respect for our people's rich heritage, many employees arrived today wearing outfits with elements of national identity. The vibrant patterns of traditional fabrics and authentic accessories filled the office with an atmosphere of a true Uzbek holiday, comfort, and unity.

Events like these do more than just help with holiday preparations; they incredibly strengthen team spirit, reminding us of the importance of preserving our shared cultural values.

We sincerely congratulate everyone on the upcoming holidays! May these spring days bring peace, prosperity, joy, and abundance to every home.
