More Travel Opportunities: Uzbekistan Airways and Air India Sign Codeshare Agreement

2026 31 March

Uzbekistan Airways and Air India have signed a codeshare agreement aimed to expanding opportunities for passengers of both airlines and fostering international cooperation. Flights on the Tashkent – Delhi, Tashkent – Mumbai, and Tashkent – Goa (seasonal route) routes are available for booking under the codeshare agreement effective March 20, 2026.

The partnership is designed to expand the capabilities of both airlines' route networks and strengthen air connectivity between Uzbekistan and India. The agreement also unlocks additional travel opportunities through key aviation hubs in India, providing passengers with convenient access to Uzbekistan Airways flights to destinations within Uzbekistan.

Thanks to the codeshare agreement, passengers will be able to plan trips along these routes utilizing a single ticket, ensuring a more seamless travel experience and broader access to the route networks of both airlines.

The Chairman of the Board of Uzbekistan Airways, JSC noted:

"The signing of the codeshare agreement between Uzbekistan Airways JSC and Air India opens a new chapter in the development of aviation cooperation between our countries. For us, this is a significant step in expanding our international route network and creating additional opportunities for our passengers. On behalf of Uzbekistan Airways JSC, I would like to express my gratitude to our partners at Air India for their trust and constructive cooperation. We anticipate that this agreement will serve as a solid foundation for the further development of our partnership and the implementation of new joint initiatives in the aviation industry."

Nipun Aggarwal, Chief Commercial Officer, Air India, said:

“We are delighted to partner with Uzbekistan Airways as we continue to expand Air India’s global footprint. Tashkent is an increasingly important destination for leisure, business, and cultural travel, and this partnership allows us to offer our guests more choice and convenience while strengthening India’s air links with Central Asia.”

Tickets are already available on the website and at the sales offices of our partner, Air India.
