Meeting with the youth

2026 10 April

Managers of the tourism and marketing departments of Uzbekistan Airways held a meeting with students of the Turin Polytechnic University in Tashkent.

The meeting was attended by Business Management students, who showed strong interest in the airline’s activities. During the discussion, participants asked a wide range of questions, and representatives of Uzbekistan Airways provided detailed and comprehensive answers.

In particular, the discussion covered topics related to the airline’s marketing strategy, service promotion mechanisms, and passenger flow management. Opportunities for internships in areas such as crisis management, emergency response, marketing, and business were also discussed.

Students were also interested in the key skills required for a career in marketing, as well as the expectations placed on young professionals. Special attention was given to aviation-related topics, including spare parts supply and the differences between Airbus and Boeing aircraft.

In addition, participants asked about aircraft capacity and the specifics of various professions in the aviation industry. The most active students were recognized with commemorative gifts.

The meeting was held in an open and constructive atmosphere, further strengthening dialogue with future industry professionals.
