The second day of “Otdykh” in Minsk

2026 10 April

On the second day of the “Otdykh” International Tourism Services Exhibition and Fair, held in Minsk, a series of presentations was held focusing on Uzbekistan’s tourism potential. The presentation programme was opened by the Embassy of the Republic of Uzbekistan in Belarus, which provided participants with information about the country, its cultural heritage and tourism opportunities.

During its presentation, Uzbekistan Airways outlined the company’s activities, route network and current destinations. Particular attention was paid to development prospects in the Belarusian market, including plans to increase the frequency of scheduled flights to and from Minsk.

Following the presentations, a series of B2B business meetings with potential partners took place at the airline’s stand. During the talks, issues relating to the expansion of cooperation, the development of tourism links and the strengthening of interaction between Uzbekistan and Belarus were discussed.

Flights on the Tashkent – Minsk – Tashkent route operate three times a week: on Mondays, Thursdays and Saturdays.
