Uzbekistan Airways Employees Take Part in a Charity Initiative

2026 2 June

Employees of Uzbekistan Airways participated in a charitable initiative dedicated to International Children's Day. As part of this act of compassion, blood donations were made at the Republican Blood Transfusion Center to support young patients undergoing treatment for oncological diseases.

Initiatives such as these help bring hope, care, and a chance of recovery to children who are in greatest need of support.

ADALAT
Adalat

May this contribution serve as a meaningful gesture for the well-being of the younger generation. After all, every child matters, and every drop of donated blood can provide someone with health, strength, and renewed faith in a brighter future.