

Uzbekistan Airways expands the route network in the United Arab Emirates thanks to the partnership with Etihad Airways

2026 5 August

Uzbekistan Airways announces the expansion of opportunities for the passengers traveling to the United Arab Emirates. Starting from the ninth of August, 2026, within the framework of the cooperation with the Etihad Airways airline, direct flights will commence on the Abu Dhabi – Tashkent – Abu Dhabi route.

The opening of the given direction makes the planning of journeys to the United Arab Emirates even more convenient and offers new advantages to the passengers:

Flexible selection and one flight ticket. Thanks to the partnership of Uzbekistan Airways and Etihad Airways, the passengers receive even more opportunities for comfortable journeys between Tashkent and Abu Dhabi.

New opportunities of the UzAirPlus program. The participants of the loyalty program of Uzbekistan Airways will be able to accumulate premium points for the journeys on the new flights between Tashkent and Abu Dhabi.

Flight tickets are already available for reservation. It is possible to acquire them on the official www.uzairways.com website, within the Uzbekistan Airways mobile App, and also at the Uzbekistan Airways Sales and from the agents of the airline.
