

Uzbekistan Airways is participating in the “OTDYKH Leisure 2026”

2026 4 September

Uzbekistan Airways is participating in the “OTDYKH Leisure 2026” international tourism forum and exhibition, which is taking place in Moscow.

At the Uzbekistan Airways booth, guests can learn about the airline's route network, current offers, and travel options between Russia and Uzbekistan, as well as receive advice from airline representatives.

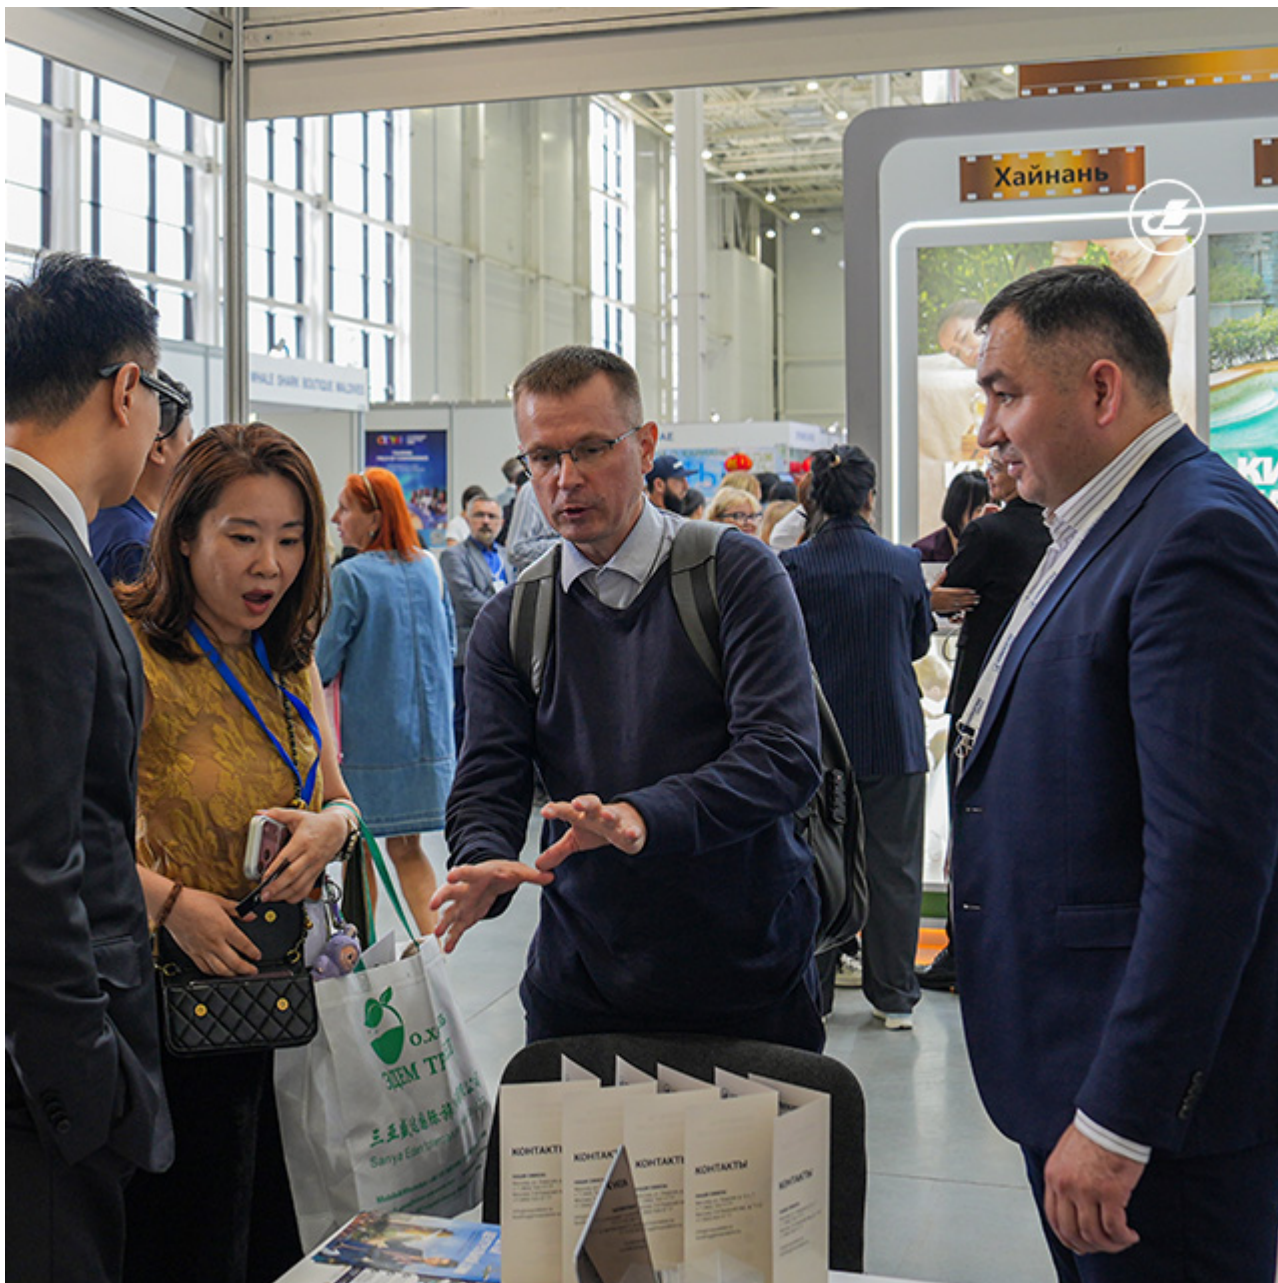

Special attention is being paid to the business program during the exhibition. Representatives of Uzbekistan Airways are holding B2B meetings with tour operators, agencies, and other participants in the tourism market to discuss the development of bilateral tourism flows, prospects for cooperation, and opportunities for further expansion of air service.

The airline's participation in the exhibition underscores its commitment to strengthening its position in the Russian market and making travel between Russia and Uzbekistan even more accessible and convenient.
