

Uzbekistan Airways expands the partner network: a new interline agreement with the aviation company Kam Air

2026 7 October

Within the framework of the strategy concerning the expansion of the route network and the strengthening of the positions upon the international aviation market, Uzbekistan Airways announces the launch of an interline cooperation with the aviation company Kam Air.

The given agreement opens new logistical possibilities, offering convenient connecting routes between Kabul and the key business and tourist centers of Eurasia to the passengers.

Starting from September of the year 2026, the passengers are able to issue a single flight ticket from and to Kabul with a comfortable transfer within Tashkent according to the following destinations: Seoul, Paris, Milan, Riga, Tbilisi, Delhi, Phuket, Urumqi, Astana, Minsk, Moscow, Saint Petersburg, Novosibirsk, Kazan, and Nizhny Novgorod.

The key advantage of the partnership for the passengers is the possibility of the through registration of the baggage. The registration is produced immediately until the final point of the destination, which significantly saves time and makes the process of the connection maximally operative and comfortable.

The flight tickets for the flights, operated within the framework of the interline agreement, already arrived into the sale. It is possible to issue a flight upon the official website of booking.uzairways.com, within the corporate mobile application, within the branch of Uzbekistan Airways Sales, and also at the authorized agents of the airline.

We continue to develop the international partnership, in order to provide a high level of the service to the passengers of the airline and to erase the boundaries for new magnificent journeys.

Together with Uzbekistan Airways within any sky – you will feel yourself entirely at home!
