

Inspiration and support of talents: the youth of Uzbekistan Airways at the “Moda Yo‘li” competition

2026 20 October

The development of the corporate culture of Joint Stock Company Uzbekistan Airways is inseparably connected with the support of creative initiatives and the active participation of our employees in the cultural life of the country. Recently, representatives of the youth asset of the airline visited the fashion show of the regional stage of the republican competition of young designers Moda Yo‘li.

This large-scale specialized event became an excellent platform for the demonstration of bold solutions and original authorial collections. Novice designers presented vibrant looks, in which unusual combinations of textures and traditional national motifs harmoniously intertwined in an innovative, modern interpretation. The attention to details and the high level of execution made a strong impression upon the guests of the event.

The employees of Uzbekistan Airways acquainted themselves with the competitive works with great interest, highly appreciating the creativity of the participants and the aspiration to develop the domestic fashion industry. For our team, such events are not merely an opportunity to touch the world of art, but also an essential source of inspiration, helping to expand horizons and find non-standard approaches to the solution of daily tasks.

We are convinced that the support of talented specialists, openness toward fresh ideas, and integration into current cultural trends play a key role in the formation of a proactive, creatively thinking, and versatily developed generation. The youth of Uzbekistan Airways is open to the world, values creative labor, and is always ready to support new talents of Uzbekistan.
