Uzbekistan Airways at WTM London 2026!

2026 16 November

Uzbekistan Airways took part in one of the world’s leading travel trade shows, World Travel Market London 2026. The airline showcased its services and capabilities as part of Uzbekistan’s national stand.

The exhibition brought together tourism industry professionals from around the world, providing a platform for establishing new business contacts and exploring future opportunities. For Uzbekistan Airways, it was an opportunity to introduce international partners to its route network and services, discuss potential areas of cooperation, and strengthen existing business relationships.

Participation in WTM London marked another step towards promoting Uzbekistan’s tourism potential and fostering international cooperation.
