The winner of “Avialedi 2021” has been determined

2021 16 June

In honor of the 80th anniversary of “Vnukovo” International Airport in Moscow, “Avialedi 2021” competition was held, in which 13 flight attendants, representatives of nine airlines: “Utair”,” Russia”,” RusLine”,” Azur air”, “Azimut” , “Armenia”, “Yakutia”, “Gazprom avia” and “Uzbekistan Airways” JSC took part.

uzairways
Image not found or type unknown

The jury members were to determine the winners based on the results of thematic competitions, in which the professional qualities of flight attendants were assessed on a par with their creative abilities. The contestants demonstrated their erudition and special knowledge, shared the secrets of this romantic, but still difficult profession, and also completed creative tasks. The girls reincarnated into their favorite images from the world of classical literature and cinema, paraded in evening dresses from famous world designers.

The jury evaluated the external data of the participants, their professional qualities, the ability to stand in public and adequately represent their airline.

The Grand Prix of the “Avialedi” 2021 competition and the crown of the winner was won by the representative of “Uzbekistan Airways” JSC - Victoria Akhmedova, a wonderful mother of two children and a flight attendant with 16 years of experience.

We remind that in 2018 at the International Forum "Sky Service" the team of flight attendants of the National air carrier won two cups: "Team of the Year" and "Best Flight Attendant of the Year", in 2019 it won the nomination "Trade as an Art of Service". And the flight attendant of “Uzbekistan Airways” JSC Karina Rakhmanova became the second Vice-Miss of the first beauty contest Sky Lady 2019.