Passengers with limitation of life activity

2021 3 December

Today, December 3, is the International day of persons with limitation of life activity. The Uzbekistan Airways team takes into account the needs of all its passengers, providing opportunities for the smooth use of air transport.

Today, the airline offers a number of special services that are maximally adapted to the needs of invalid people and other people with limitation of life activity:

- escort and assistance at the airport of departure / arrival;
- transportation of passengers unable to move independently in a wheelchair / autolift to / from the aircraft;
- priority boarding;
- provision of pillows and blankets;
- accompanied disembarkation after the departure of other passengers;
- personal meeting at the airport of arrival.

Special services are provided upon request, issued within the specified timeframe when booking and arranging transportation 48 hours before the flight.

Also, for invalid passengers and participants in the Great Patriotic War, special discounts on air tickets from 50% to 100% are provided.

Telegram: t.me/uzbekistanairways