Uzbekistan Airways and airBaltic announce codeshare agreement

2021 6 December

Uzbekistan Airways and airBaltic are starting codeshare cooperation that will open new, seamless travel opportunities.

According to the new agreement, from the 22th of November 2021 airBaltic will place its marketing codes on flights operated by Uzbekistan Airways between Tashkent and Riga, without limitation of seats. Thus, airBaltic customers will have better access to cities in Uzbekistan and Central Asia, and Uzbekistan Airways passengers will benefit from convenient access to the extensive European airBaltic network.

«We are glad to expand our cooperation with airBaltic and further strengthen our route network in Europe. Uzbekistan is one of the fastest growing tourist destinations in the world, and we are confident that cooperation with airBaltic will provide passengers with more advantageous travel opportunities from European cities to Uzbekistan – the pearl of Central Asia – via the hub of Tashkent airport» – noted the Chairman of the Board of Uzbekistan Airways.

Martin Gauss, President and CEO of airBaltic: «We strive to offer convenient and affordable travel from Uzbekistan to Riga and beyond. With this step we improve our time-tested cooperation with the airline Uzbekistan Airways more and strengthen the air connection between Uzbekistan and Latvia».
