5 atmospheric cities for the New Year

2021 27 December

До новогодних праздников с каждым днем остается всё меньше времени. Команда Uzbekistan Airways представляет вашему вниманию 5 мест, куда можно поехать на Новый год.

- Нью-Йорк

Город превращается в сказку: украшенные елки, сосновые ветки, яркие огни на каждом шагу. Тысячи людей празднуют новогоднюю ночь на Тайм-Сквер, где до 18:00 с верхушки здания опускается подсвеченный хрустальный шар. Он касается земли ровно в полночь. После этого начинается праздничное шоу.

- Лапландия

Every day there is less and less time before the New Year holidays. “Uzbekistan Airways” team presents to your attention 5 places where you can go for the New Year.

New York

The city turns into a fairy tale: decorated Christmas trees, pine branches, bright lights at every turn. Thousands of people celebrate New Year's Eve in Time Square, where an illuminated crystal ball drops from the top of the building until 18:00. It touches the ground exactly at midnight. After that, the festive show begins.

Lapland

If you are traveling with children, visit Lapland, the birthplace of Santa Claus. The town has ski resorts, the Rauna arctic park, dog and deer farms. Also nearby is the village of Lainio, where you can see huge ice sculptures. And also during December in Lapland you can see one of the most amazing natural phenomena - the northern lights. The night sky is covered with different patterns of yellow, red, green light.

Prague

It always snows on New Year's Eve in Prague. Traditionally, on a festive night, residents gather on the Staromestskaya Square, where they celebrate the New Year with the chimes. And then they rush to the Charles Bridge to make a cherished wish, which will certainly come true next year.

Kiev

From December 19 to January 19, New Year and Christmas holidays are held in Kiev. On the night of December 31, the main show of the country starts at Independence Square in Kiev from 20:00. Concerts, fireworks, competitions create a fabulous atmosphere.

Amsterdam

From the beginning of December to the end of January, the Festival of Light takes place in Amsterdam. Every evening the city lights up with multi-colored illumination. It is customary to celebrate New Year's Eve on the Museum Square in front of the Royal Palace. But on the morning of January 1, be sure to go to The Hague to swim in the North Sea. It is said to bring good luck in the new year.
